SCHEDULING ORDER

Re: Dkt. Nos. 10, 11

12
13 Plaintiff has requested an extension of the deadline to object to defendants' removal of this 14 action from the Monterey County Superior Court. Docket Nos. 10, 11. If a plaintiff wants to 15 challenge the removal of an action, the way to do so is via a motion to remand. See 28 U.S.C.
16 § 1447(c). Upon due consideration, the court GRANTS the request for extended time. Docket 17 Nos. 10, 11. Plaintiff must file and serve on defense counsel any motion to remand the action to 18 the state court no later than April 14, 2017. If plaintiff files a motion to remand the action, 19 defendants must file and serve their opposition no later than May 12, 2017. And if defendants file 20 an opposition to his motion to remand, plaintiff must file and serve his reply in support of his 21 motion to remand no later than May 26, 2017.

22 Plaintiff is cautioned that the court will not further extend the deadline beyond April 14, 23 2017, for plaintiff to file a motion to remand because he has had more than six weeks to prepare 24 such a motion and has not yet identified the basis for any such motion. Moreover, the notice of 25 removal appears proper on its face: (1) the removal appears to be timely in that moving 26 defendants report that they were served with the complaint on January 17, 2017, and removed the 27 action on February 6, 2017, less than thirty days later (see Docket No. 1 at 1); and (2) the 28 complaint presents a federal question because, although the allegations are mere conclusions, the

1 complaint purports to assert claims for violations of plaintiff's rights under the First, Fifth, Sixth
2 and Fourteenth Amendment to the U.S. Constitution (see Docket No. 1-1 at 4).

3 In plaintiff's request for an extension of time, he also asks the court to order prison
4 officials at the R.J. Donovan Correctional Facility in San Diego to return documents to him, which 5 were taken and put in storage when he was placed in a "hospital segregation unit." Docket No. 11
6 at 2. The request to compel the non-defendants to return materials to plaintiff is denied. Absent
7 unusual and compelling circumstances not present here, federal courts generally are discouraged
8 from interfering with day-to-day prison administration decisions. See Turner v. Safley, 482 U.S.
9 78, 84-85 (1987). Plaintiff may wish to consider filing an inmate appeal to attempt to obtain his 10 paperwork, if he believes it has been improperly confiscated.

11 IT IS SO ORDERED.
